Law in Service of the Public

featuring

Oakland City Attorney

John Russo

The Oakland City Attorney's office continues to use the law as a powerful problem-solving tool and a means to serve the community's interests.

John Russo will join AABA members and guests on February 17th to discuss the efforts being made by his office to seek Oakland's first civil street gang injunction, provide an update on the Neighborhood Law Corps' efforts to improve our city block by block, and discuss how a special prosecution team is fighting quality of life crimes here, among other important topics.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn more about the City Attorney's office and its efforts to improve Oakland.
